Buíochas- Thanks

This Official Programme is produced by Thurles Sarsfields G.A.A. Club. We are deeply indebted to our writers who have given so freely of their talents. All four clubs involved in today's finals have been most co-operative and forthcoming with information on their teams etc. This has helped to make the task of compiling the programme a most enjoyable one. Finally a word of thanks to the staff of 'Wellbrook Press' for their patience and help.

Beir bua.

Today is a very important day for hurling within the County. It is the objective of all Senior Hurling clubs to contest a County Hurling final and our teams today are no strangers as participants at such a stage— Kilruane defending their title and Thurles Sarsfield the challengers.

For any team to reach a County final demands not only skill and expertise but dedication and sacrifice as well. The players are the important people. It's their game. They get great satisfaction in victory but must also suffer the bitter disappointment of defeat. You see and judge the players but do remember their selectors, coach, trainers and all their Committee members— who give of their time in helping to organise players and teams in their parishes. Voluntary willing helpers are needed in all parishes. You certainly can help your Club. You can at least give them your good will. You may be good with juveniles. You could help with transport. Money is needed by all Clubs. Grounds demand upkeep. You will be working for the good of our young people and providing them with a healthy and manly pastime.

Ag súil le cluiche breá spórtúil agus ag brath ar bhúr dtacaíocht go léir.

KILRUANE MAC DONAGH

This is Kilruane's fifth appearance in the county final in six years, which in itself is an indication of the strength of the club, and four years ago, they won the county senior football crown. In that year, they were deprived of a county double by Moneygall hurlers.

The Kilruane MacDonagh club was formed in the early 30s and when the seniors line out against Sarsfields today they will be making the eighth appearance of the club in a county senior hurling final. They suffered defeat in the final on four occasions, going under to Moneygall in 1975 after a replay, losing to Roscrea in 1973 and to Sarsfields in '59 and '44. The MacDonaghs have savoured victory on two occasions '77 and '78 and are now bidding for three in a row.

A list of the achievements of this great club in 1978 include the following:

u-12 hurling divisional champions

u-14 hurling divisional finalists

Intermediate hurling 1978 champions of county

U-21 football 1978 champions of county

North Tipperary senior hurling champions

All the club's social activities take place in the Father O'Meara Memorial Centre and club training is carried on in the Tomas MacDonagh Memorial Park and Pavilion in Cloughjordan.

The club's predecessors in the Cloughjordan area, Lahorna de Wetts, won the senior county title in 1902 by defeating Carrick 7-10 to 1-2 and it is interesting to note the recurrence of names of people who took part in that victory in today's lineup.

The Lahorna team was: Jack Dwan, Jim and Martin Darcy, Dan and Tom Ryan, Rody Nolan Con Brewer, Din Whelan, Pat Williams, Mick Conway, Mick Moloughney, Jim Connors, Jack Meara, Mick and Paddy Kennedy, Mick Maher, Tim Carr, Mick Cleary and Paddy Behan.

Bliain Idirnáisiúnta an Linbh Year of the Child

J. Duggan

At first glance a contribution in a county final programme on the theme 'The Year of the Child' may seem most inappropriate but on reflection, surely nothing can be so intertwined with growing up in Tipperary than the game of hurling with its widespread popularity and all its private joys, sorrows and celebrations. Indeed not only is it the outstanding feature of our childhood but by virtue of the thrill and excitement that the game for ever evokes, our childhood has been a very long and extended one. The annual pilgrimages to county finals and all Ireland's, while never matching the intensity of the first occasion, are still tinged with the wide eyed wonder of our early years.

Close your eyes today for some few moments and seek again the child within yourself and allow the memories to come flooding back—for me the 1961 All-Ireland, where a square foot of Cusack Stand between my fathers knees was the dress circle to the most intense theatrical experience I have ever felt—Pope John Paul's triumphant cavalcade never quite matched the journey on the top of Matt Treacy's car with the Street League Cup to the bonfires under the water tower and not even the Archbishop's Coat of Arms holds the same constant gleam as my first medal in fifth class. The roar of the crowd has never supplanted the satisfaction of scoring the winner in "six goals in" and the sometimes bitter shriek of the final whistle has never evoked the unspoken thoughts that greeted "Mammy wants you for your dinner" as the hurleys smash on the concrete . . .

Today the gleam of flashing traffic and the coloured patterns of the one eyed monster in the corners of our homes tend to dazzle the young eyes, Tipperary have been out of the honours list for most of the decade, hurling talk does not permeate household conversation to such a degree as heretofore—yet anyone who has seen the range of skills displayed by such as the juveniles of Toomevara, the earnest determination of the boys of Knockavilla Donaskeigh or the reappearance of hurleys on the streets of Thurles cannot but feel reassured—our juveniles have attained a higher standard of juvenile hurling than at any other time.

Despite this most welcome development it is to the images presented by the adult game we must look if hurling is to be an integral part of the young Tipperary child's life. On the debit side we have the linking of our games with men of violence, if only in a very slight way, the exaltation of the 'hard man' into a hero figure for our youth, the parish rivalry that boils over into naked hate and foul language and the suppression of flair and skill by fair means or foul devoured by a win at all costs mentality, the absence of christian and moral standards in the headlong drive for success and the formation of playing elites within clubs while others less skilful are left uncatered for.

The wide eyed child at your side today will gaze at the easy stroke of a Pat McGrath, the deft control of Pat McCormack, the efficiency of Paddy Williams, the clever control of Paul Byrne or the movement at speed of Eamonn O'Shea. The roar of the crowd, the waving flags, the music of the sticks, the shouts of encouragement—all will be absorbed and brought to bear at street corners, school fields, meadows, back yards etc. But let us not forget that the young mind is an open lense with no filters. That leaves us, the adults of Tipperary with a frightening responsibility in the imparting of our games—let's hope in this year of the child that we are equal to it.

Loughmore—Castleiney

Loughmore—Castleiney minors who defeated Eire Og, Nenagh in the semi-final.
 Back row: Pat Treacy, Dick Egan, Jim Maher, Gerard Geehan, Declan Allen, Seán Og Lynch, Pat McGrath, Pat Cormack.
 Front row: Liam Cormack, Lant Carroll, Joe Sweeney, Timmy Stapleton, Peter Brennan, Francis McGrath, Joe O'Connell.

Today Loughmore-Castleiney contest their 4th consecutive minor hurling final and their 5th in the past 6 years. So far all they have managed is one victory that being in 1976 when they defeated Cashel in a most exciting final. Prior to that they had failed to Cashel in the final and since then have been beaten by Eire Og Nenagh in the 1977 and 1978 deciders. Loughmore—Castleiney will field 13 of the team which played in last years final and most of the team which won the county u-16 championship in 1977. The record of Loughmore—Castleiney in under age competition is well known and in this decade no less than 16 county championships have been won from u-21 down.
 These titles are:

| | |
|--|-----|
| u-21 football 1970, 1974, 1976 | (3) |
| Minor football 1976, 1977 | (2) |
| u-16 football 1977 | |
| u-14 football 1974, 1975 (rural & urban rural), 1976 | (4) |

| Minor hurling 1976 | (1) |
| u-16 hurling 1977 | (1) |
| u-14 hurling 1975 (rural & urban rural), 1976 | (3) |

In addition to those listed above the club has won the county senior football championship in 1973, 1977 and 1979 and won the junior football championship in 1978 for the first time ever.

On their way to the final Loughmore Castleiney are unbeaten but were given a close run by Thurles Sarsfields in the Mid final and by old rivals Eire Og Nenagh in the county semi-final. The care and selection of this team is in the hands of Philip Gleeson, Tom McGrath, Joe Grady, Sean Mockler and John Fitzpatrick.

Officers of the Loughmore—Castleiney G.A.A. club are:

Chairman: Pat Cullen;
 Treasurer: Eddie Webster;
 Secretary: Tom McGrath.

COMORADH AN PHILARSAIGH

1879

1979

Céad bliain ó shoin a rugadh Pádraig Mac Piarais agus b'olc an mhaise dúinn an bhliain a ligint thart gan smaoineamh ar an laoch seo agus ar an éacht a rinne sé. Ba ghasúr óg é nuair a bunaíodh Cumann Lúth Chleas Gael agus is cinnte gur chuaigh aidhmeanna an chumann i gcion go mór air. Ba bhall fuinniúil den chumann é agus d'aithnigh sé éifeacht i gcothú agus i mbuanú an mhisnigh i measc Gaeil na tíre. Ceann de bhunaith-eoirí Comórtaisí C. L. G. do Choláistí Laighean ab ea é agus cluichí Gaelacha amháin a bhíodh ceadaithe i Scoil Eanna. Dúirt sé:

"Some of those who have come to St Endas from other schools have played alien games, but we shall play only Irish games here. I am certain that when it comes to a question of Ireland winning battles, her main reliance must be her hurlers. To your camans, O boys of Banba."

Photo includes: J. Farrell, J. Slattery, G. Morrissey, M. Kennedy, T. Doherty, D. Hayes, L. Doherty, M. McGrath, D. Morrissey, P. J. Butler, M. O'Sullivan, M. Butler, P. Carroll, M. Hennessy, J. Hennessy.

Kickham Club was formed in 1935. The club came into being with the coming together of sister parishes Knockavilla and Donaskeigh where there had been separate clubs up to then. First Chairman and Secretary of the club were Jack Dwyer (S) and Bill Dwyer (N.T.) respectively. The club has had many successes down the years. The senior hurling team has won 12 west titles and achieved the distinction of winning these in the 50s and early 60s powered by the McCormacks, the Farrells, Clearys, W. Hayes, J. Hennessy, J. Mulooly, D. Browne etc, most of whom wore the county singlet at various grades. These players also represented the club in several county semi-finals with distinction.

Donal O'Brien another clubman won 2 All-Ireland medals as county goalie in the early 60s. Paddy Furlong also holds an All-Ireland senior medal won in 1949. Several clubmen hold All-Ireland minor medals won with the county, notably J. J. McCormack, John Farrell (selector of today's team), M. Ryan (T), M. Ryan (C), D. Browne, J. Mulooly.

Several minors have won Munster medals but were unsuccessful in attaining All-Ireland medals. Three of today's team represented the county in this year's championship — John Farrell, Donal Morrissey and Dominic Hayes.

The club also won county u-21 final in 1967 and were beaten a point in the 1966 final. Dan Morrissey selector-trainer cum coach of today's team was also a selector on this year's All-Ireland u-21 winning team.

Foundation for today's team was laid in the early 70s by Fr John McGrath now in St Patrick's College, then curate in the parish and who took an active interest in the under age players in the club. This team captured the West title after a long wait, were beaten in 2 county finals at u-14 by today's opposition, but a win today would gladly compensate for this.

Club Officers: Chairman Eamonn Browne; Secretary Paddy Hayes; Treasurer John Keane; Hon Presidents Fr O'Mahoney; Fr O'Connell, John Crosse; Vice President Tom McCormack. Minor Selectors: Danny Morrissey, John Farrell, Christy Ryan, Tom Fahery, Tom Touhey.

Songs of Our Premier County

1930 ALL-IRELAND

The 7th of September being the date of the year
When Tipperary and Dublin once more did appear
In the All-Ireland final in Old Dublin Town,
When the laurels of Dublin old Tipp did pull down

About 2 o'clock at the venue we found 30,000 spectators had gathered around,
When Dublin came on for to die or to do,
And the colours they wore were the famous light blue.

Next came Tipperary, those boys of great fame
Through the States and old Ireland they've earned their name

Led in by their captain both fearless and bold,
And the colours they wore the blue and the gold.

The teams were lined up and the backs were sent out

The bookies grew hoarse as for bets they did shout
Even money Tipperary we soon heard them say
And the champions of Munster will carry the day.

The ball was thrown in and they started to play
For the hurling blue ribband in battle array
The old Dublin mountains re-echoed each clash
Every whiz of the ball, every clash of the ash.

A foul on the right brought Tipperary a free
And the ball it was placed by the bold referee,
Phil Cahill rose and struck it, Lord how it did soar,
Over the bar for Tipperary's first score.

The work done at midfield by Treacy was grand,
And the cheers for that hero that came from the stand

Will live in our memory until we are dead,
And the crimson stained bandage he wore round his head.

Good luck to you Kennedy and long may you reign You're the star of all Munster and the pride of the game,

And you Tommy Leahy we'll never forget,
When you slap banged off Callanan right into the net

Two goals seven points when the long whistle blew
To the spot where our flag was unfurled we flew
We marched round our heroes and wished them good cheer,

To be All-Ireland champions for many a year.

TIPPERARY FAR AWAY

The sun had set with its golden ray,
And the bitter fight was o'er.
Our brave boys sleep beneath the clay,
On this earth they are no more,
The moon-beams shone o'er the battlefield,
Where a dying rebel lay;
His arms were crossed and his body was stretched
His life's blood flowed away.

Our comrades in silent ambush laid,
For the evening sky was clear,
Yet not one man was then afraid,
Our brave boys knew no fear.
Few people in the city streets,
Had heard of that fierce affray,
Of that valiant youth whose home was set,
In Tipperary Far Away.

There were none to weep for you, Sean Tracy, asthore!
Or a caoine to sing in your praise,
To recite your deeds, like the Gaels of yore:
On your dear face no longer we gaze!
"In that kingdom of love may your dear soul rest"
Are the words that we fervently pray,
That we all meet above the old friends we loved best
In Tipperary Far Away.

A volunteer passing heard poor Sean moan,
As the wounded man lay on the ground:
For his comrade knew well Sean was one of his own
As he warily looked around.
"Lift me gently" he whispered "no more shall I roam"
For no longer on earth can I stay.
I shall never return to my own native home,
In Tipperary Far Away.

"A lock of my hair I implore you to take
To that mother I love tenderly.
I implore you to give to her for my sake,
Then I know she'll think fondly of me
Tell her that here, in the battle of life
For the dawn of bright Freedom's Day.
I prayed for my home in the thick of the strife
In Tipperary Far Away.

"Tell Mother we fought for Granuaile,
As our patriots did of yore,
For Ireland's cause that shall not fail,
But shall win from shore to shore!
And heroes brave, our land to save,
Shall sail o'er the ocean spray,
To view my home across the wave,
In Tipperary Far Away."

The Soldiers of Ireland bore him on high,
On their shoulders with solemn tread:
And many a heart, with tearful sigh,
Wept over our patriot dead,
In silence they lowered him in the grave,
To rest till the reckoning day:
Sean Tracy, who died his home to save,
In Tipperary Far Away.

I'm sure most of our young readers will be surprised to learn that we had nine Senior Hurling All-Irelands and all of our four Senior Football Championships won before our present county jersey (blue with gold hoop) was adopted in 1925.

I'm not too sure if the Thurles selection won that historic first All-Ireland Hurling final of 1887 in their shirts or not. The photo of that team which appears in Canon Fogarty's monumental "Tipperary's G.A.A. Story" has printed underneath "photographed about 1910" which would be over 20 years after the final was played. I read somewhere that this photo was taken on a Fair Day in Thurles and the jerseys worn by most of those in the group were those of Tom Semple's 'Blues'. But in dealing with the county final of 1887 which Thurles won from North Tipperary, Canon Fogarty refers to "The Mid men proudly happy, in jerseys of green and gold." So its more than possible that Tipperary won an All-Ireland in green and gold long before Kerry made those colours so decidedly their own.

I have never seen a photo of the Tubberadora selection which won for Tipp. its second hurling title, for 1895. It was as a result of winning this final that Tubberadora were presented with a set of blue and gold jerseys by the Tipperary Grocers' Assistants in Dublin and they were worn for the first time in the County Championship of 1897 against Killen-aule. So, what jerseys if any, did the Champions of '95 wear in the final. The first club game for the County Championship ever played by Tubberadora was against Rockwell Rovers in 1895 and the Canon refers to them as "the black and ambers from Tubberadora." Although born and reared in the latter townland and knowing several of the old hurlers, I never heard mention of those colours and I cannot say where the Canon got this information. It was a Tullaroan selection that Tipp. beat in that final of '95 and the late Danny Brennan, N.T. Tullaroan told me that he was present at that final and that Tipp played in their shirts. Well there is no doubt about the colours worn by the Tubberadora selections in winning the '96 and '98 titles. The Canon's book contains a photo of each team, wearing the blue jersey with the gold sash referred to above.

I have never seen a photo of the Horse & Jockey selection which won the All-Ireland for 1899. There is general agreement that it was a jersey with a sash. Of the five 'Jockey players who assisted the 'Borris selection in the 1900 final, four of them wear different jerseys from the rest of the team in the photo of that team. These four players have a Shamrock on the sash also.

In the photo of the Two-Mile-Borris selection (which won the 1900 All-Ireland), in the Canon's book the jersey worn has a sash but what were the colours. I think it was a red jersey with a white sash. In dealing with the County semi-final of 1910, in which 'Borris were defeated by Toomevara, he quotes from the "Nenagh News"— "Two-Mile-Borris marched out from the village in the well known colours of red and white."

There is no doubt about the colours worn by the Thurles 'Blues' in their victories for 1906 and 1908— blue with a narrow white band— but Tom Semple, the Captain, seems to have worn a distinctive jersey of his own. The photo of the '06 team in the Canon's book shows Paddy Riordan of Drombane in a black jersey, while the photo of the '08 team taken on the field at Athy where the final was played has Jimmy Burke wearing a sashed jersey. If this was the 'Borris jersey of that period, it does not appear to be red with a white sash. Maybe the colours were reversed— white with a red sash. I do not like to see a break with tradition. That's why I regret the change made by Sarsfields after winning the 1929 County Championship when the white band was discarded.

I am indebted to Phil O'Neill's "History of the G.A.A. 1910-1930" in whose account of the Munster Senior Hurling final 1913 played at Dungarvan, when Tipp (Toomevara) beat Cork says: "This was the first occasion on which distinctive county colours were worn. Cork had saffron jerseys with blue collars and cuffs and a large C on breast. Tipperary wore bright crimson, with gold collar and sleeve bands and on the breast were the crossed keys of the Kings of Cashel."

I cannot say if Tipp wore those colours in 1914 or 1915 but when the Boherlahan selection triumphed in 1916 it was back again to club colours. Let me quote again from Canon Fogarty when dealing with Tipp's first victory that year over Kerry— "In their first appearance as custodians of Tipperary's honour, the Boherlahan men took the field in the caps and colours— the well known blue and gold of their invincible predecessors of Tubberadora— safely stored since '98 to await this big occasion"

1925 saw the introduction of the County jersey as we know it now, blue with a gold band. It too had the gold Shamrock with 'Tiobrad Arann' over the band. It had a round neck and for the first time had a number on the back— in black on a white background. It was a thick woollen jersey and when the Tipp hurlers toured the States in 1926, a new set of lighter material was used. The Shamrock was replaced by a small Tricolour but neither the Shamrock or Tricolour has appeared on any of the sets used since except for the 1957(?) trip to New York when the Tricolour appeared again. Nach fada go mbeidh an Gorm agus an tOrga in uachtar aris.

WHEN LAST THEY MET

...COUNTY FINAL 1959

It is twenty years since today's rivals met in a county final. That game was played on 23rd August 1959 at St Cronan's Park, Roscrea. Sarsfields on that day were aiming for the record breaking five-in-a-row while Kilruane were appearing in their first Senior County final since '44. It was a very keenly contested game throughout, with Sarsfields leading by one point at half-time. Centre-back Ray Reidy was starring for "the Blues" while G. McCarthy was having one of his best games for Kilruane. As the game drew to a close the craft experience and the fact that they were playing so long together stood to Sarsfields. The final score read: Sarsfields 3-12, Kilruane 2-6. Tony Wall, commenting later said that it was Sarsfields toughest game since 1955. Scorers that day were:

Sarsfields: P. Dorney 1-2; J. Doyle 0-4;
M. McElgunn 1-0; S. McLoughlin 1-0

L. Keane 0-3; M. Maher 0-2;
R. Reidy 0-1.

Kilruane: G. McCarthy 1-4;
T. McLoughney 1-0;
S. Williams 0-1;
G. Hogan 0-1.

Sarsfields: M. Keane, M. Byrne, B. Mockler, B. Maher, M. Murphy, R. Reidy, N. Murphy, T. Wall, C. Keane, J. Doyle, M. Maher, P. Dorney, L. Keane, M. McElgunn, S. McLoughlin.

DAN BREEN CUP

The Dan Breen Cup was first presented to the County Senior Hurling Championships in 1931. The wear and tear of victory, celebrations over the years, however, damaged the Cup to such an extent that by 1972 a new trophy was needed. It was fitting that a new Dan Breen Cup was provided by the Dan Breen Memorial Committee. The new Cup has the design of an ancient Irish drinking vessel— the Mether— and is similar to, though slightly smaller than, the Liam McCarthy Cup for the All-Ireland Championship.

It is of solid silver with a unique base in that the conventional type base is abandoned and in its place is a two-tiered mahogany plinth manufactured specially by a Moneygall craftsman.
