Fáilte

Is cuis mhor áthais dom fáilte a chur roimh gach aoinne a tá I láthair I Druim Inse inniu agus tá suil agam go mbeidh sár-chluiche againn.

It is my privilege to extend a special welcome to all on the occasion of this Mid Senior Hurling Championship Final.

Once again I would like to welcome back Loughmore-Castleiney and the return of Boherlahan/Dualla. This evening Loughmore-Castleiney are endeavouring to make it 'three in a row' while Boherlahan/Dualla who are a club steeped in tradition are hoping to win back the Johnny Leahy Cup last held in 1995. Both teams have had a hard campaign, as the standard of club hurling in Mid Tipperary is very high this year and I hope this final will be reminiscent of the many great encounters of the past and provide us with great entertainment and live up to all our expectations.

I would like to thank the host club Drom-Inch for their warm welcome and excellent organisational skills which has once again reached the high standards we have come to expect from them. I would like to congratulate Drom-Inch on their additional club house development and wish them continued success and good luck. Also, I would like to acknowledge and thank MacLochlainn Road Markings for their support and kind sponsorship of our Mid Senior Hurling Championship - for which I am sincerely grateful.

It remains for me to wish both teams well and hope that this will be a memorable final.

SONNY MAHER

The name "Sonny Maher" is known throughout Tipperary and beyond as one of the great Boherlahan and Tipperary hurlers.

Sonny's father, Jack won All-Ireland honours with Tubberadora in 1898 and his uncle, the legendary 'Big Mikey' was the captain of the Tubberadora teams of 1895-96-98, he also won All-Ireland medals in 1899 and 1900 with Horse and Jockey and Two-Mile-Borris.

Sonny's sons John, served as club officer for many years and co-wrote the Boherlahan/Dualla club history and Billy, who played on many successful parish teams and had the distinction of being club chairman in the historic county final winning year of 1996. The link continues to the present day, with Billy's son, David a vital member of today's team.

Sonny was a member of the 1941 county champions. Boherlahan defeated Eire Og-Annscairde in the final, and he played for many years for the club, captaining the team in 1949, when Borrisoleigh won the Mid final after a replay, in what has been described as a Golden Age of Tipperary hurling. He won a Mid final in 1953, when Boherlahan defeated Sarsfields in the final.

He played full forward in the great Tipperary three-in-a-row All-Ireland teams of 1949-50-51 and won National League medals in 1949-50-52.

Boherlahan-Dualla GAA

In the early years of the association, the parish was represented by clubs such as Tubberadora, Suir View and Ballytarsna, all of whom won county honours with famed Tubberadora winning three All-Ireland Senior titles in four years, 1895, 1896 and 1898.

In 1912, the Boherlahan club was founded and from then until 1928 the club won 9 county finals and two All-Ireland, 1916 and 1925, under the captaincy of the great Johnny Leahy, whose name is honoured on the Mid Tipperary Senior hurling championship trophy. Incidentally, Johnny Leahy became the first Tipperary man to receive the Liam McCarthy Cup in 1925. The club's first Mid success was in 1913, and the club dominated the division for the next few years. The club affiliated to the South division in the twenties and early thirties, winning six South championships in a row from 1924.

After this great spell, lean times followed, a County Senior victory in 1941, captained by Philly O'Dwyer, and a Mid Senior win in 1953, being the highlights. In the early sixties, the present name of Boherlahan-Dualla was adopted. A County Minor hurling title in 1970, with stalwarts like Seamus Power and Jim Keane, and an Intermediate victory in 1981 which restored our senior status, brought us up to the nineties. In 1993, the County Minor hurling title was won for a second time, and the nucleus of this team and 1994 County U-21 hurling finalists, formed the backbone of the 1995 Mid Senior championship winning team and County finalists.

1996 will live long in the memories of parishioners as the renewal of an old rivalry with the great Toomevara, saw us come out on top, 1-16 to 2-12 as Boherlahan-Dualla once more added its name to the county role of honour. This team, managed by Martin O'Dwyer, Kieran Maher and Willie Joe Dwyer and Donagh O'Donnell (trainer) lined out; Phillip Ryan, William Hickey, TJ O'Dwyer, Tommy O'Dwyer, Seamus Hickey, Conor Gleeson, David Ryan, Michael Ferncombe, JJ McGrath, Ger Flanagan, Michael Murphy, Brian O'Dwyer, Liam Maher and Aidan Flanagan, added new pride to the famous old colours.

For many years the local field was situated in Gaile and hosted some great games included famous Mid Senior hurling finals featuring Thurles Sarsfield, Moycarkey and Thurles Kickhams. The present grounds were acquired in the early 1970's and with great voluntary help and support, the Sports complex, stand and facilities were developed to make Boherlahan Sportsfield the fine facility it is today.

Loughnane-Castleiney GAA Club

by Pat Healy

Today the club are contesting their 18th mid final and bidding to bring their number of victories to double figures of 10, since gaining status in 1981.

Following great success at juvenile level in the early seventies which in turn produced the great team of the eighties and nineties, a new group of players have emerged in the parishes of Loughnane and Castleinay. This year our U21 players have won football County A Final with the hurlers pipped by one point in Hurling County Final following a replay.

Outstanding work is continuing with our juvenile teams in the parish, with almost every team playing in (A) competition with huge success keeping the future success of the club very much alive.

Excellent talent in this group of players has been hampered by a huge amount of serious injuries this year leading to defeat in county league sections. However under the guidance of former greats Fr Peter Brennan, Pat Treacy and Kevin Kelly along with Jimmy Sweeney as trainer in recent weeks they may be coming right to take the title.

OFFICIAL OPENING OF EXTRA DRESSINGROOMS IN THE RAGG BY SEAN FOGARTY, CHAIRMAN MUNSTER COUNCIL

Drom-Inch GAA Club was formed in 1887 and from 1934 it used what is currently the County Camogie pitch as its main grounds. In 1986 a committee was formed to cater for the ever expanding requirements of the club and a 7 acre site was purchased from John Egan. In 1987 work began in earnest in developing what is now the Ragg GAA Pitch and grounds which were officially opened on 13th May 1990. The Ragg pitch soon became one of the busiest venues in Mid Tipperary due to its prime location, ease of access and good facilities. In 2003 a second development committee was formed to develop the Ragg grounds further so double-headers like today's Mid Final could be more comfortably accommodated with more modern facilities for both players and spectators.

MEET THE CAPTAINS

Boherlahan/Dualla - Ger Flanagan, today's captain, has many years experience, playing his first senior hurling championship game in 1993 as a seventeen year old. That year he captained the club minor hurling team to county success, the first in the grade since 1970.

Ger, a garda based in Dublin, has won many honours with the club, including Mid medals at U-14, Minor, U-21 and Senior, and county medals at Minor and Senior, and has won Munster U-16 and U-21 medals with Tipperary. He also played at minor and senior level for Tipperary.

Loughmore-Castleiney - Declan Laffin's captaincy will come as no stranger to him, having captained juvenile teams, Minor and U-21 teams hurling and football, and Mid senior football championship winning team. An outstanding dual player with the club, winning a Mid senior football and county final medal in goal as a sixteen year old in 1992. Has represented Tipperary at various levels, a holder of many medals with Our Lady Templemore including a Harty B medal. Declan suffered a serious knee injury some years back but fought from surgery and is one of our most dedicated players to training etc. Today he will be bidding for a fourth Mid final medal and would dearly love to do so as captain of the side and bring the Healy Cup to the club for the tenth time. Pat Healy PRO.
