To-day we reach the climax of this year's Cross Country Championships and we are gratified by the substantial number of entrants. We congratulate all athletes on the work they have done and what they have achieved.

To-day's races will all be keenly contested and enjoyable. To the athletes we offer best wishes for satisfactory results and to the spectators our thanks for their support.

We are grateful to members of Killenaule A.C. for organising and preparing for the Championships to-day and to the Civil Defence for providing First Aid facilities; also to all other Officials for their help and co-operation in making to-day's Championships a successful event.

P. McGovern,
PRESIDENT.
