REAMHRA

I AM PRIVILEGED to welcome you to Clonmel Sportsfield on the occasion of our Senior Hurling Final. We look forward to Swan and Fionn Mac Cumhaill to provide a thrilling hour's hurling, well in keeping with the standard set in previous years. We wish each and every player well in giving of his best for his club, and helping also to maintain a high standard of sportsmanship in this final, thus making it a game to be remembered amongst the finals of our division. Irrespective of the outcome of to-day's final, both teams go forward to meet the Mid representatives on 27th August at a venue to be arranged. We wish them both the best of luck in those quarter finals; they deserve our full support in their efforts to bring a county title to the division once again. In the general hurling pattern of our county, we cannot claim to be strong, due mainly to the lack of senior teams. We look forward to the return to senior ranks of Killenaule and Ballybacon/Grange, who play in the curtain-raiser to the big game, also Marfield, Fethard/Coolmoynes, Ballingarry, Cahir, Newcastle. A sound juvenile and minor policy in each club, with a special emphasis on ground hurling, will help to produce players to put hurling generally in a much stronger position. I compliment to-day's finalists for their work in this regard.

As my term as Chairman comes to an end this year, I take this opportunity to thank very sincerely the club officials and players, referees, gate checkers, groundsmen, stewards and our patrons for their wonderful support and co-operation during the past three years. I thank especially our Secretary, Miceal O'Meara, and compliment him on the production of this souvenir programme.

Miceal Mac Carthaigh, Cathaoirleach

SWAN SEEK 15th TITLE

CARRICK Swan have a proud record in South Tipperary hurling. They first came to prominence in Senior ranks in 1929, when their team—regarded by the experts as “novices”—were beaten in the Championship semi-final by the 1927 Junior Co. Champions, Killenaule, by 6-3 to 5-3. The fifteen that did duty for “the birds” on that occasion was: Ned Reilly, Dan Roche, Pat O’Toole, Wm. O’Brien, Frank Power, Joe and Peter Dunne, Bob McGann, Matty McGrath, Tony Neylon, Wm. Finlay, Mick Ryan, Tom Maher, Mick and John Phelan.

Swan took their first South title in 1932 at Junior level and had not long to wait for Senior success. This came in ’33, when they scored a decisive 4-8 to 1-0 win over Boherlahan, who had been unbeaten in the Division from 1924-’30. Swan went on to lose to eventual Co. Champions, Moycarkey, before a huge crowd (gate receipts £101) at Gaile.

The Club went on to win further South titles in 1935 and 1936, and reached the Co. Final in ’35 only to be beaten by Thurles Sarsfields.

One of the Club’s greatest moments came in ’37, when Willie Wall played a leading role in Tipperary’s All-Ireland success over Kilkenny at Killarney and brought home a first All-Ireland medal.

The South Championship again came Swan’s way in ’39 before the Club’s greatest era in the forties. They monopolised the Championship from 1944 to 1948 inclusive, and Tom Wall added his own piece of history by emulating his brother, Willie, and bringing home an All-Ireland medal in 1945.

1947 was to prove a never-to-be-forgotten year when the elusive Co. title came to the Club for the one and only time.

Paddy Fleming brought a third All-Ireland medal to Swan in 1951, and further South Championship successes came in 1950, 1952, 1958, and 1959.

The sixties sadly proved unsuccessful but the seventies brought a new era and a rise in the Club’s fortunes. A County Championship success in the under-21 grade in 1972 paved the way for a golden year in ’74, when arch rivals Davins were defeated in a memorable South final. Further All-Ireland medals were won by Tony Fitzpatrick in Intermediate and Gerry Whelan in Minor, and whilst Swan have suffered defeat in the last three South deciders they are confident that they are once again on the victory trail and that captain Sean Fitzpatrick will to-day bring home the Championship trophy to the Swan club for the 15th time.

SWANS' FINEST HOUR

AN unusual emissary left Clonmel Sportsfield for Carrick-on-Suir on the afternoon of Sunday 26th October, 1947. It was a carrier pigeon bringing the good news that Swan had defeated Borrisoleigh 5-4 to 2-2 in the County Senior Hurling Final, thus bringing the Dan Breen Cup to the Suirside town for the first time in its history.

Earlier in the year, Swan had to battle all the way to turn back the challenge of their fierce rivals Killenaule by a single point, 4-7 to 4-6, in a thrilling South Final, but from then on they went from strength to strength, defeating Holycross in the semi-final and then rather easily accounting for a Borrisoleigh team, powered by minor star Paddy Kenny and his brother, Sean.

The big men in the Swan side that day were midfielder Tom Wall, his brother Willie, who captained the side from the full-back position; goalie Paddy Fleming; Jack Walsh, a very able midfield assistant to Tom Wall; Paddy Kelly, who never allowed Paddy Kenny to get into the game; and forwards "Hawk" Nugent and "Three Goal" Paddy Madden.

Every man on the team, however, was a hero that day, and they were given a royal reception when they returned to Carrick with the Cup that evening.

The attendance at Clonmel Sportsfield was in excess of 8,000 and over 800 travelled by train and nearly 1,000 by car and bicycle from Carrick.

A FIRST FOR FIONN MAC CUMHAILL?

VICTORY for Fionn Mac Cumhaill in to-day's South Final would be an unique achievement as the team is competing in the Championship for the very first time.

Formed last January, the team is a combination of the Ballingarry and St. Patrick's Drangan & Cloneen Clubs, and they affiliated in Senior football and hurling. St. Patrick's formed the backbone of the football side beaten in the first round of South and County Championship, but Ballingarry provide the majority of the players on to-day's side. The combination has been a happy one from the start. St. Mary's were defeated in the first outing and then followed successes over Liam Lynch's and to-day's rivals, Swan. Although defeated by holders, Davin's, Fionn Mac Cumhaill had already qualified for the decider and they now have high hopes of confirming the form of the last encounter with Swans.

Both Ballingarry and St. Patrick's are clubs with strong football traditions. St. Patrick's have fielded a junior hurling side for many years with little success. In the past they were a powerful force in football, taking County Senior Championships in 1947 and 1953.

Whilst Ballingarry are now better known for their hurling prowess, their main achievements have also come with the big ball. They were Co. Senior Football Champions in 1951 and won a County Junior crown in 1939. In hurling, their greatest moment in Senior ranks came in 1949 when the Club took the Senior Hurling title for the one and only time, beating Killenaule in a tempestuous final.

Probably the sweetest success of all, however, was the winning of the County Junior crown in 1973. The South Intermediate title was won in '77, whilst an amount of success has been enjoyed by the Club's juvenile, minor and under-21 sides.

Tommy Brennan brought an All-Ireland under-21 medal to Ballingarry in 1962 and in more recent times Martin Brennan and Eugene Hanrahan have been honoured by the County selectors.

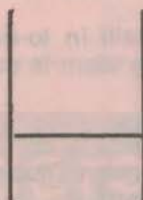

With the majority of the present Fionn Mac Cumhaill side emanating from successful Bord na nOg teams, the future of hurling in the area is assured.

Victory in to-day's final would bring great rejoicing over a wide area of the South Division, but, win or lose, Fionn Mac Cumhaill have brought a vibrant new force to the Championship and look like being strong contenders for many years to come.
