FÁILTE GO CILL SIOLAIN

KILSHEELAN IN THE SUMMERTIME

*Oh! Lovely is Kilsheelan in the summertime,
When the lilacs and the hawthorns are in bloom;
And the rhododendrons up along the high road,
Nod upwards to the heather and the broom.*

*The hills and dales are dotted with the may flower,
And little mountain streams come tumbling down.
Sweet singing birds make music in the hedgerows,
Fond nature has placed here her grandest crown.*

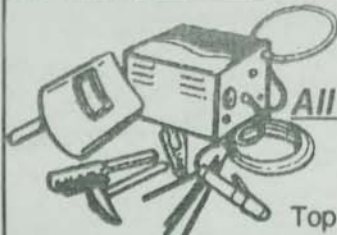

*The Suir flows gently on to meet the deep sea,
Past sweet Gurteen where lovers long to roam,
Its waters dance and play at Poulakerry,
To welcome back the salmon to their homes.*

*Old rugged Silievenmon stands there so sombre,
To guard the pleasant valley down below.
Oh! Lovely is Kilsheelan in the summertime
My dreams bring back those scenes of long ago.*
