FÁILTE - Cathaoirleach Thiobraid Árann Thiar

Ceád míle fáilte to all Gaels to the 70th West Tipperary Senior Hurling Final and a special welcome to our participating parishes, Knockavilla-Donaskeigh Kickhams and Eire Óg Annacarty-Donohill to Clonoulty sportsfield.

The West Final to me is a very special occasion and this year is unique with the clash of two great neighbours.

Kickhams, a team that has achieved so much in both hurling and football in recent years, have many players with inter-county experience in both codes and also many players that have been the back-bone of the club for many years, so must start as favourites.

Eire Óg, a club that's on the up and up in recent years have many players that have given so much to our county also in both codes with a great blend of youth and experience they will be guaranteed to give their very best and have a great record in finals.

May we have two winners - the best team and the game of hurling.

Our curtain-raiser is very special because it brings our Senior and Juvenile Boards together for the John Kelly Soft Drinks Under 14 "A" Hurling Final between Galtee Rovers and Kickhams. This is sure to prepare us for the big one.

We welcome our new sponsors Tipperary Co-Op and thank you for your generous sponsorship and wish you continued success.

We welcome also our referee, Paddy Russell and his officials, the most sought after team in the country at the moment.

To our host club Clonoulty Rossmore I compliment you on a job well done. Our thanks to the Gardai, Red Cross, stewards and gate checkers.

On behalf of the West Board to each and everyone a safe and enjoyable day.

DONNCHA Ó RIAIN,
Cathaoirleach Coiste Thiobraid Árann Thiar

I wish to thank all those who helped to put this fine programme together - especially J.J. Kennedy, Seamus King, Leonard Fitzgerald, Eileen Carroll-Ryan, The Tipperary Star and both team managements, also Kieran Maguire and the helpful staff of Tipperary Co-Op Super Valu.

FÁILTE ÓN gCATHAOIRLEACH

Cuirim fiór-chaoin fáilte roimh gach éinne chuig cluiche ceannais iomána an iarthair anseo i gCluain an Ultaigh inniú. Tá súil agam go mbeidh cluiche breá spóirtiúil againn agus go mbainfidh ár bpatrúin sult as.

It gives me great pleasure to extend a céad míle fáilte to the four teams, their mentors and supporters to Clonoulty for the biggest day in West Tipperary's calendar. We hope for sporting and entertaining matches and hope you will enjoy the occasion.

Many thanks to Coiste Thiobraid Árann Thiar for allowing us the honour of hosting this year's final, the last in the millennium. Thanks also to all our advertisers and to Jerry Ring and J.J. Kennedy for their work in compiling and editing this programme. We ask for your co-operation with the stewards in the smooth running of the day's activities. May the ancient game of hurling be the winner on the day.

West Senior Hurling Final Preview

by Leonard Fitzgerald

Today we witness the end of an era as the last Senior Hurling Championship before the millennium is about to unfold. At the beginning of the year, few would have predicted the opposition locked into battle at the final hurdle. Knockavilla Kickhams and Eire Óg Annacarty are worthy representatives in a final which anticipates an hour full of gruelling competitiveness and physical exertion all through.

On more than one occasion, the element of surprise has been the topic of conversation throughout this intriguing championship campaign. Last year's divisional finalists Clonoulty Rossmore and Golden Kilfeacle were defeated in their respective 1st round matches with both sides failing to gain admission through the loser's section to a resurgent Cashel K.C. Cashel and Cappawhite exited at the semi-final stages with the Annacarty/Cappa episode probably the closest contest. Meanwhile, Kickham's road to the final was more routine with the bonus of a Donie O'Brien goal in the 1st round and the point scoring ability of John O'Brien in the semi-final, that diminished the Cashel resistance by two points on both occasions.

1991 was the last occasion that Clonoulty staged the West-final in which Cappawhite went down to the eventual Munster Club Champions, Cashel. Now the seasonal pendulum rewinds itself towards another epic encounter. Coincidentally, two of Eire Óg's last three West titles were gained in Clonoulty in 1967 and 1981 respectively. This hunting ground could be a huge incentive for them and who's to say that they won't make it a threesome!

Despite feeling the disappointment of losing their Senior status, Eire Óg returned with Intermediate honours in 1994. Last year they almost swept the board at underage level with the inclusion of a first ever underage County Minor Football title. Now 1999 has already shown a new approach and a craven hunger for success. Kildangan's Eamon Kelly has been the catalyst for this dramatic turnabout, himself a Junior All-Ireland medalist in 1989. John Quinn, Anthony Crosse and the Fox brothers were medal winners in 1986 and that quartet possess the core of experience today. With the expert freetaking of Philip McLoughlin, the Kellys, the Heffernans and the youthful O'Briens add a pleasant blend and variety to topple any defence.

On the opposite side of the hurling spectre, Kickhams have no less than fifteen senior titles, the last accomplished in 1997 after a drought of 37 years. The majority of these players are established campaigners. Fergal Heaney, Brian Horgan, John O'Brien, Vincent Kelly and Kevin Farrell have a passion to attain superiority at the highest level while John McCormack, Eoin Morrissey and Donie O'Brien show the tremendous talent at the Kickhams disposal. They are no strangers to the big day having contested four finals already in the 1990's. For them a win today would surely compensate for all the years of disappointment. For my prediction a close encounter with possibly the experienced Kickhams to edge it, but a classic confrontation I'll hope for.

BORN! NOT MADE?

by Seamus J. King

How often have we heard it! Sure, why shouldn't he be a fine hurler when all belonging to him were soaked in the tradition of the game? Or, the opposite side of the same coin. Sure, what could you expect? There wasn't a hurler to be found on either side of the family!

I'm beginning to doubt this wisdom and the player who put me thinking was Sean Óg O Hailpin. How could he possibly be a hurler? Sure his father was a Fermanagh man and his mother a native of Fiji, and he himself spent ten years of his life in Fiji. Did you ever hear of a Fermanagh man or a Fijian getting on a hurling team?

So, how come that Sean Óg made it in hurling, and in football also for that matter? I believe the big culprit is environment and in his case it was the environment of North Monastery secondary school, where hurling was a second religion. There he found an opportunity to express his natural athleticism through hurling.

There are many such examples. Take the famous Bonnar brothers, all three of whom got All-Star awards in hurling. Why should they have been hurlers when both parents came from Donegal and the father played football with Gortahork? The answer is simple they went to school in Cashel C.B.S. where Brother Noonan taught everyone how to hurl and made a damn fine fist of it as well.

And, staying in Cashel, another example are the O'Donoghue brothers. There's nothing in their pedigree which would suggest hurlers. What, with the father from Kerry and the mother from Meath, sure 'twas far from hurling they were bred. But, they grew up in the environment of hurling and all five have given sterling hurling service to the Cashel King Cormacs.

Most of us have heard of that great Cork school, Farrenferris, a great nursery of hurling. It may come as a surprise to learn that over half the boarders there come from west Cork, which is exclusively football country. They arrive in Farrenferris at the age of twelve years hardly knowing the shape of a hurley. And, what happens to them? They became great hurlers like Jim Young became, or Terry Kelly or Tim Crowley, to name a few. Had they stayed at home hurling would have been the loser.

There are other dramatic examples. Jack Lynch's father was a footballer from Bantry. We know that Jack never lost that part of his inheritance and won a football All-Ireland in 1945. But that success was squeezed in among five hurling All-Irelands, which I would hazard a guess, Jack would have never seen had his father not moved his tailoring talents out of the west of the county and into Cork city, where the young Jack fell into the environment of hurling in North Monastery and was snapped up by Glen Rovers at the age of eleven years.

And, what about the great Eddie Kehir. What would have become of him had his father remained in Roscommon. Would Eddie have made as skilful a Roscommon footballer as the skilful Kilkenny hurler he became?

Of course, the reverse is also true. Look at the fate of Ger Power. Why should the son of a great hurler like Jackie Power become a great Kerry footballer. And, the answer has to be because he left the hurling environment of Limerick for the football world of Tralee and Kerry.

So, the moral of the tale has to be, not to scoff at anyone's attempt to wield a caman because his father or mother or anybody else belonging to him, never caught a hurley in his hand. The environment's the important thing. I've said before that had Pierce Bonnar emigrated to some English village, rather than migrating to Cashel, his sons would have become the best cricketers in the area.

The Old Boys: (l.r.): - Liam Mooney, Donncha Horan, Anthony Crosse, Kevin Fox (he played Minor Hurling with Tipperary in 1974 and Minor Football in 1975. In 1976 he played Senior Hurling on the Eire Óg/Clonoulty combo. Still playing football and hurling and managing plenty of time also for the juveniles in his parish.)

EIRE OG ANACARTY/DONOHILL G.A.A.

Eire Og's last West Final success was in 1986 - the Golden Jubilee of the club (1936) and the centenary of the formation of clubs in Anacarty and Donohill (1886). In 1888 Anacarty took part in the football championship, losing to Bohercrowe who went on to become County Champions. The first registered hurling club was organised in Donohill in 1910 and called Bohernagibbins. The club was affiliated to the South Board and took part in the 1914 Junior Hurling championship. With the formation of the West Board in 1930 Donohill joined with Cappawhite and won the Junior Hurling championship. In 1934 Donohill joined with Donaskeagh and called themselves Multeen Rovers. The enforcement of the parish rule in 1935 meant the end of these combinations, so Anacarty and Donohill amalgamated in 1936 to become the Eire Óg of today.

Success came at Minor hurling level in 1937, '38 & '39 while joined with Cappawhite and known as Brian Boru's. 1937 also saw Eire Óg win the Junior hurling championship. The big break-through came in the 1940's, with Eire Óg winning four West Senior Hurling titles in a row - 1941, '42, '43 & '44 and going on to win the County Senior Hurling title in 1943. Eire Óg lost the West Finals of 1945, '46 & '47, the latter two to Kickhams. The 1950's was a restful period for the club and they did not come to prominence again until 1960, winning the West No. 1 Junior Hurling championship. A combination of Eire Óg/Cappawhite known as St. Vincent's won the 1961 West S.H. title. Eire Óg won their 5th. West S.H. final in 1964, it being twenty years since their last. Three years later in 1967 Eire Óg took the title again. The seventies saw success in Minor hurling and county titles in Junior hurling, u/21 hurling (with Cappa) & Junior football. Two West S.H. titles came in the 1980's with victories over Cappawhite in 1981 and Golden in 1986. The onslaught of the nineties saw a decline in hurling fortunes but an increase in football successes - Co. Junior Football in 1993 and West Intermediate Football in 1997. Having dropped to Intermediate standard in hurling Eire Óg won the Co. title in 1994. Success has been more prolific in underage activities in recent times:

1997- West u/16 "B" hurling and football. 1998 - West u/12 "C" Football, West u/16 hurling and football, West Minor "B" hurling and football, West u/21 "B" football and above all the Co. title in Minor "B" football. Underage successes have been to the fore also in 1999 with the following titles won to date: West u/12 and u/14 "C" football, reaching the Co. Final in both grades. Eire Óg have always fostered both hurling and football on an equal footing. Eire Óg are proud of their achievements and successes down through the years. The club has All-Ireland medal holders in the following hurling grades: Senior, Intermediate, Junior, u/21 and Minor.

Was it a Goal or a Point ?

Curious incident at Cashel - a goal or a point extraordinary finish to J.H. semi-final

The 1936 county J.H.C. semi-final tie between Clonmel's St. Mary's and Clonoulty the West champions attracted a fairly good muster to Cashel Gaelic field on last Sunday. Half-time score Clonoulty 1-3, St. Marys 2-2. Final score Clonoulty 3-5, Clonmel 4-2.

The game proved very interesting with several scientific flashes and good striking predominating. Although play seemed to be ragged at times still it must be remembered that at such an early stage in the new season teams are rarely to be seen at their best. In contrast the rather uneventful first moiety the second period supplied thrills in abundance especially during the last ten minutes when it looked as if St. Mary's were going to run out pronounced winners. It was at this time that a clever tactical move was introduced to the Clonoulty forward line - James Brennan being brought from the 40 yards mark to the position of full forward. The change proved electric in the results for no sooner did the first ball reach him than Jim raised the green flag, a distinction which he earned a minute later when another beautiful centre came his way with a similar fate. These two vital scores had brought Clonoulty well in front of the opposing side. Again young Brennan was the marksman; slipping to the right wing he got possession and then deftly dropped the leather over the crossbar. With about two minutes to go the West champions longed for more scores but this, strange to say, was responsible for an extraordinary change in their fortunes. Swarming into St. Mary's territory Clonoulty left but a few defenders to look after their own lines. Like lightning the ball was sent down to Jack Ryan who slipped through a temporarily disorganised Clonoulty back line and with only the goalkeeper to beat drove in a hard shot from which the goalkeeper recoiled. Following a consultation between the umpires Mr. Sean Dwyer, chairman of the West Division Board and Mr. Robert Hall N.T. chairman of South Division Board the white flag was raised. Immediately after the goal puck being delivered the long whistle was sounded signalling the end of the game. Then ensued a scene of confusion and excitement. Clonmel players and several of their supporters invaded the pitch in the vicinity of the Clonoulty goal where umpires and referee Mr. John Ryan, of Laffansbridge were in earnest conference and allegations were freely made that the umpires had erred in allowing a point instead of a goal. Though surrounded by expostulating players and spectators the referee refrained from giving his decision until he had had an opportunity of fully consulting with Messrs. O'Dwyer and Hall. Having done so Mr. Ryan subsequently awarded St. Mary's a goal. When matters had quietened down a representative approached the referee who when asked what his decision was said it was his opinion that the disputed score was a goal and so he ruled. On the referee's decision the match thus ended in a draw of fourteen points each.

Clonoulty - Jas Kennedy, Jas Brennan, J. Byrne, T. Hammersley, M. Maher, W. Ferncombe, J. Hennessy, P. O'Shea, C. Gleeson, J. Quirke, W. O'Dwyer, P. Hennessy, P. Byrne, M. Cleary, M. Ferncombe.

BOARD MEETING 19/7/1935

The following fixtures were made:- Senior Hurling final fixed for 25th August, Kickhams v. Donohill or Arravale Rovers. Referee: John Hennessy.

The Senior hurling championship saw Donohill defeat Arravale 5-3 to 3-2. This match was refereed by C. McCarthy, Annacarty, who ordered Richard Heffernan to the sideline. In the West Final, Donohill played Kickhams. This was a ding dong game with some fierce tackling and close marking and not as one-sided as the score indicates, 7-4 to 4-1, Kickhams being the winners. There was a healthy rivalry between the teams, as the previous year they had played together as Multeen Rovers, but the parish rule forced them to segregate. Barry was the star of the field, while others to do well were the Heffernan trio, the Hanlys, Ryan (Jerh.) and Ryan (Whip).

The Eire Óg team was selected from the following players:- D. Heffernan, J. Heffernan, R. Heffernan, M. Ryan, P. Hanly, T. Hanly, John Ryan, J. Ryan, D. Horgan, M. Doherty (goalie), T. Doherty, J. Hanly, D. Breen, J. Ryan (J), W. Barry.

Kickhams team for the 1936 West Final was probably the same as the 1936 team:-

Kickhams:- J. J. Lysaght (capt.), T. Crosse, W. Barry, T. Moloney, J. Hogan, M. Heffernan, J. Ryan (three), M. Morrissey, T. Ryan, T. Duggan, C. Crosse, P. Ryan, C. Hickey.

1938:- The West Board records show that Eire Óg affiliated in Junior hurling and Junior football, while Brian Borus affiliated in Minor hurling. They do not show a record of affiliation in Senior hurling but still Eire Óg played in the final against Kickhams. As Eire Óg were the Junior champions of 1937, it would seem obvious that they should have a Senior team in 1938. At any rate the final is the only match chronicled. On the 13th November in extremely inclement weather Kickhams beat Eire Óg 3—3 to 1—1. By half-time Eire Óg had failed to score. In fact they did everything but score on a number of attempts. Jimmy O'Donnell, the county Minor played in goals for Eire Óg. All after-match talk centred on the struggle between the centre-field pair, Tom Ryan (Castle) and Peter Browne. Tom Ryan (C) better known later as "Reilly" was described as "a useful stalwart of grit pluck and skill". The team was: D. Heffernan, P. Hanly, Jerry Ryan, (W), J. Ryan, C. Hanly, P. Dineen, D. Condon, T. Ryan (C), J. Bergin, W. Bergin, A. Doherty, J. O'Donnell, P. Mulcahy, M. Hanly.

"Star" 26/10/1946:- Knockavilla-Donaskeigh snatch victory.

S.H.C Final - Kickhams 5-3 Eire Óg 4-2.

There was a surprise ending in the West Tipp S.H.C. Final at Golden on Sunday when Knockavilla/Donaskeigh rushed through three goals in the last few minutes to defeat Eire Óg by 4 points.

Scores were level at half time at 2-2 each. A sodden pitch did not lend itself to first class hurling but there were many exciting passages with both sides battling hard for supremacy. Eire Óg looked well set for victory coming into the last quarter when they had what seemed a safe lead with only a few minutes to go. Knockavilla /Donaskeigh however, nothing daunted, staged a great rally and their efforts were rewarded with three quick goals to give them the title. Mr. Hammersley, Clonoulty, refereed. Their supporters from all over the West division are now eagerly looking forward to the County semi-final clash with Thurles Sarsfields and hopes are high that the West champions will contest this year's County final.

"Star" 9/11/46 - County champions still looking like champions.

Forwards tear through western defence in county semi-final.

S.H.C. county semi-final Sarsfields 7-6 -Kickhams 1-4.

Thurles Sarsfields were in slashing form against Knockavilla/Donaskeigh Kickhams in the semi-final of the County S.H.C. at Cashel on Sunday. Hurling with confidence they moved with the precision of a well-tuned machine and showed vast improvement on previous outings this year.

At no stage of the game were the champions threatened. With a centre field pull their lively set of forwards had no difficulty in piercing the Kickhams defence and the winners measure of superiority is fairly indicated by the final score of 7-6 to 1-4. Sarsfields now meet Carrick Swans in the final at Clonmel on Sunday Nov. 17th.

Conditions were very bad. The heavy rain on Saturday and Sunday left the entrance to the field a passageway of mud and which the local committee did much to improve with loads of straw. On the pitch itself at each goalmouth there was an area over which backs and forwards slithered and skidded and often when a player struck the ball he sent a shower of water and mud flying with it. A downpour of rain just before the match made matters worse as sideline spectators were naturally loathe to use the greasy seats so that stewards had difficulty in keeping them off the touch line. It is easy to visualise conditions in a chaotic state if the game had been a closer contest and if the crowd had been of bigger proportions. Fixtures are being allowed to run too late in the year or rather a start is not being made early enough.

"Star" 23/8/47 - Knockaville again West Champions

S.H.C. Final Kickhams 5-3 - Eire Óg 2-3.

At Golden on Sunday Knockavilla Kickhams defeated Eire Óg in the West division S.H.C. by 5-3 to 2-3. Though Kickhams deserved their victory their superiority was not as convincing as the score might indicate. In retaining their championship title Knockavilla never lost their heads when they were pinned to their own lines for the greater part of the second half. The pace throughout was fast and in the great heat it was a test for both teams.

Play was only two minutes in progress when from a brief tussle in front of the Eire Óg goal P. Holmes put the leather in the net. Even play followed and again the ball was driven down to the Kickham forwards. This time Peter Browne was the sharpshooter and he gave the Eire Óg custodian no chance of saving. A brief attack by Eire Óg ended in Tom Joy shaking the net. The Kickhams had the better of the play for the rest of this moiety, Peter Browne adding two more goals. Half time score Kickhams 4-1 Eire Óg 1-1.

On the resumption Eire Óg delivered a sustained attack on the Kickhams posts, the raid being frustrated. P. Dwyer replied with a minor for Knockavilla.. From a sideline puck J. Ryan cut in a beauty which sailed all the way to the Kickhams net. The Anacarty boys at this period showed great dash. M. McCarthy put his side attacking and a clever passing movement ended in Peter Browne placing the issue safe for the Kickhams. In the closing stages each side added two points and both teams were giving of their best when the long whistle sounded leaving the final scores Kickhams 5-3 Eire Óg 2-3.

Kickhams:- P. Cussen, T. Kinane, T. Crosse, P. Morrissey, W. Hanly, P. Furlong, J. Cooney, M. Ryan, S. O'Dwyer, J. Ryan, M. McCarthy, M. Ryan, J. Holmes, P. Browne, J. Farrell.
