FAILTE ROIMH CACH

ON the occasion of the 1978 Minor and Senior Hurling Finals, Conchúr O Murchú, Uachtarán, Cumann Luith-Chleas Gael, in an Chlár Oifigiúil, under the above heading welcomed everyone to Páirc an Crócaigh and stressed the importance of the occasion.

His words, which are repeated hereunder, are no less relevant to us here in South Tipperary as we look forward to our own All-Ireland - the occasion of our Senior Football Final.

"It is a day on which we are reminded of the value of our national games in preserving our national identity, the importance of having a sense of pride in our country and a respect and loyalty to what is Irish and our own.

"We sincerely trust that today's programme will live up to our great tradition, producing all the skills, thrills and sportsmanship befitting the event.

"Realising the sense of occasion which it is, it is important, too, that each one of us would regard ourselves as part of the programme and make our own personal contribution to ensure that this day will project the highest standards and qualities of our country and our people".

Réamhrá

THIS centenary senior football final promises to provide an outstanding game between great rivals, Fethard and Clonmel Commercial. I wish both teams the very best of luck in their efforts to become the new champions of the South Division and hope that at the end of the day the real winner will be the game of football.
