Boeing Boeing

By Marc Camoletti

Translated by Beverly Cross & Francis Evans

9th-11th December 2014

Raheen House Hotel

Directed by Amanda Kirwan

Produced by Adrienne Small

By kind permission of Samuel French

The Play

“Boeing Boeing” is set in the 1960s and swinging bachelor Bernard couldn’t be happier: a flat in Paris and three gorgeous air-hostesses all engaged to him without knowing about each other. But Bernard’s perfect life gets bumpy when his friend Robert comes to stay and a new and speedier Boeing jet throws off all of his careful planning. Soon all three air-hostesses are in town simultaneously, timid Robert is forgetting which lies to tell to whom, and catastrophe looms. The turbulence that follows is a hilarious mixture of lies, pandemonium and frivolity. So take your seats and fasten your seatbelts as we could be in for a bumpy flight!

The play is set in Bernard’s flat near Orly Airport in Paris.

A Message from Director Amanda Kirwan

To be part of this team of actors and crew has been an absolute honour, as Director I could not have asked for anything more. Everyone has worked so hard and we have had a lot of fun with some ups and downs at rehearsals. We are very proud to bring this extremely funny and fast moving play for you to love, laugh and enjoy. I must give a big thank you to everyone on the committee for all their help but a special thanks to Adrienne Small my producer, an amazing lady.
