The Cast

Lucy La-Stiq / Carol Shaw - Carolanne Mullooly - Director

Carolanne's first major role was King Creon in the play 'Antigone' with Strange Snow Theatre Clonmel. Carolanne was attracted to the Guild when she saw their production of 'The Crucible' in 2010. Carolanne would like to thank the cast and all those involved in making this play a success. She has really enjoyed working with such dynamic and talented members of Clonmel Theatre Guild. Carolanne would also like to thank her family for their continued support throughout the rehearsal process.

Sir Loin Stake / Vince Prince - Jim Malone

Jim found the Guild in 2009 and has gone on to play numerous parts over the years in plays such as, 'Plaza Suite,' 'Move Over Mrs Markham,' 'Boeing, Boeing,' and many more. He even found time to direct a play in 2013, 'Prescription Murder.' Jim would like to thank his family for their patience and would like to stress that no humans or animals were harmed during this production.

Willie O'Won't-ee / Richard Shaw - Michael Hennessy

Michael became interested in acting at the age of 17 while still at school in Timoleague in Co. Cork when he played a part in 'Mrs Mulligan's Millions.' Three years later under the direction of the late Peter Alley, he was involved in a variety show, 'The Forestry College,' Kinnitty Co Offaly. Since then he has been in countless plays, pantos and musicals in counties Clare, Cork and Tipperary. He loves the friendliness of the group and the quality of the acting with Clonmel Theatre Guild.

John Jackson - Hugh Hennessy

Having previously taken to the stage with Borrisoleigh drama group, Hugh is really pleased to be a part of this fantastic production with the super cast and crew of Clonmel Theatre Guild. He hopes this is the first of many performances that he is a part of. According to Hugh, 'It's a fantastic way to meet new people and I would encourage everyone to give it a try, either on stage or behind the scenes.'

Janet Jackson - Karen Walsh

The last time Karen was on stage was 16 years ago, and the time seemed right to get back into it. She has spent the last 9 years in Dublin and moved back home at the end of July this year. Karen wanted to get re-involved with her community and have a bit of 'craic' doing so. The Clonmel Theatre Guild has allowed her to do this. It's been a lot of fun and she's totally enjoying it!

June May - Carol Acheson

Carol Acheson joined the Guild in 2010. She played Rebecca Nurse in The Crucible. The acting bug took hold and Carol has appeared and helped out Back stage in several Guild Productions over the years. She finds it a great outlet and a brilliant way to spend time with like minded people while entertaining audiences in and around Clonmel.

Terry May - Edmond Ryan

Edmond joined Clonmel Theatre Guild in 1984. His first play was "The Real Inspector Hound". This play "Murder at Mole End" will be his 31st over the last 32 years and the Guild's 108th production in 47 years. Other productions he has been in over the years were 'Dancing at Lughnasa', 'Noises Off', 'A Doll's House', 'Cripple of Inishmahon', 'The Crucible', 'Run For Your Wife', 'Da', 'Moll' and 'The Chastitute' to name a few. He was Artistic Director from 2006 to 2012 and is Artistic Director again since 2015.

D. I. Why - Tom Callery

Tom Callery did the 2007 C&C Leadership Challenge whilst working in Bulmers in 2007. This was an intensive 9 day Drama based training & performance based workshop. Since 2009, Tom has been involved in the Clonmel Theatre Guild as both actor and former manager. Tom has played many roles big and small over the years since then and looks forward to many more.

Sergeant - Patricia Keane

The Play

Murder at Mole End is set in the library of a country house and centres around two couples, John & Janet Jackson and Terry & June May, who attend a Murder Mystery Weekend. They soon discover that they all have links to the main actor in the piece Vince Prince. Before too long, he has been murdered for real and the race is on to solve the murder themselves and avoid jail!
